

CEB CCCLL Partner Program

A partnership program aimed at supporting the Council of California County Law Librarians

Support this county law library by using CEB priority code

9682A

when you place an order with
CONTINUING EDUCATION OF THE BAR

CEB ACCOUNT CREDIT: CEB will identify the source code and credit the contributing library 10% of each order for the products listed below.

OnLAW libraries — gives you access to the largest source of web-based California legal commentary and analysis. Sign up for a free trial to see the depth and breadth of content available, including expert step-by-step guidance, sample forms, and links to cited cases and codes.

CEB Books — comprehensive and authoritative, CEB print materials offer in-depth coverage of the law and expert analysis and guidance from California's leading practitioners.

CEB's Specialization Courses: FLIC (Family Law Intensive Course) and EPIC (Estate Planning Intensive Course) — Get the test prep course you need to pass the Certified Specialist Exam.

California County Law Libraries are PUBLIC libraries providing free access to legal resources to all Californians.