Applicant's Reason for Reconsideration and Hearing Request:

According to Property Tax Rule 326, the decision of the board upon an application is final; however, if the board's decision was entered as the result of the applicant's failure to appear for the hearing and within thirty (30) days after the date of mailing of the notification of denial due to lack of appearance, the applicant furnishes evidence establishing, to the satisfaction of the board, excusable good cause for the failure to appear, the appeal may be rescheduled.

ATTENTION: Please note that the applicant or agent is required to appear in person at the hearing on the request for reconsideration. Approval of a rehearing may be contingent upon the completion of a "1604 (c) Waiver Agreement". The waiver agreement extends the two year period in which the Assessment Appeals Board is required to conduct a hearing and make a final determination
