

Tulare County Flood Control Commission NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Tulare County Flood Control Commission at 8:00 AM on Friday, April 28, 2023, has been cancelled due in part to ongoing flooding concerns throughout the County. The Flood Commission expects to hold a special meeting in the next few weeks and notice of said meeting will be posted at the Tulare County Board of Supervisors, at Tulare County Government Plaza, and online at the address below. The Tulare County Flood Control Commission is a body committed to long term planning efforts and serves in an advisory role to the Tulare County Flood Control District, where the Tulare County Board of Supervisors also serves as the Flood Control District's Board.
